The first system of music consists of a voice staff and a piano accompaniment. The voice staff is a single line with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). It contains five measures, each with a whole rest. The piano accompaniment is written for a grand piano with a treble and bass clef. The right hand starts with a whole rest, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes in the first four measures, and a half note in the fifth. The left hand plays a steady eighth-note bass line in the first four measures, followed by a half note in the fifth. The key signature has one flat (Bb).
